

Need to Know

Michael Graves Home Goes on the Market, Michele Bönan Condominium Makes Records, and More Real Estate News

Here's everything you need to know now

By Dan Avery
December 16, 2020

From high-profile design commissions to exciting listings, there is always something new happening in the world of real estate. In this weekly roundup, AD PRO has everything you need to know.

Model Units

Penthouse B at 75 Kenmare. Tim Waltman/Evan Joseph Images

Ligne Roset Furnishes Model Unit in Lenny Kravitz's Condo Project

Kravitz Design, the creative studio founded by rocker Lenny Kravitz, has unveiled its biggest full interior project to date: 75 Kenmare, a new Manhattan condominium done in partnership with architect Andre Kikoski.

Penthouse B, a three-bedroom duplex, has been newly unveiled. The unit, priced at $7,695,000, features styling by renowned French furniture brand Ligne Roset, with luxe furnishings including the cult-fave Togo sofa by Michel Ducaroy and an Odessa dining table by Mauro Lippardini. Photography by Nathan Myhrvold for Modernist Cuisine Gallery is also showcased throughout.

“You cannot find this level of perfection in any other development in New York City today,” said Douglas Elliman’s Fredrik Eklund, the sales agent for the property, in a statement.